DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) The invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Dave et al (U.S. Pat. No. 5,135,761). With regard to claim 1, Dave et al disclose a coated chewing gum product having a chewing gum center, a coating of an emulsifier covering the gum center, and then a hard coating such as a sugar coating (abstract), flavoring agents comprise of oils derived from plants and fruits such as citrus oils, fruit essences, artificial flavors, natural flavors etc (col 4 lines 7-17). With regard to claims 2-3, Dave et al disclose that the emulsifier is preferably hydrated so that it can be applied as a liquid or gel (col 4 lines 45-47), and that flavor and color ingredients may be included with other ingredients in the various coatings (col 7 lines 11-13). It is inherent that the flavor could be artificial or natural including yoghurt. With regard to claims 4-5, Dave et al disclose that the sugar coating is applied as a solution to the product (see example 1 lines 24-27) and as cited above that color ingredients may be included with other ingredients in the various coatings.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. They teach multi-phase/coated confections.
